NORWAY AND SOUTH PARISBlacksmiths' Convention.

The annual session of the local Blacksmiths' organization of Oxford County, met Thursday, May 7, in South Paris, in the Board of Trade room. The meeting was called at 10 a. m., and invitations had been sent to men of the trade throughout the State. On the arrival of the trains from the north and south a good delegation marched down Main street to the place of meeting.

Mr. S. J. Record of Norway, Pres. of the local organization called the meeting to order, and after the preliminaries of opening the council were over he introduced Joseph D. Pfeiffer, of Norwich, Conn., a representative of the National Protective Association of Master Horse-shoers, who addressed the meeting on the subject "The Value of a State Organization." It was an able and interesting presentation of the work of National, State and Local bodies, working for better condition of this class of working men.

Among the best trades of the world is the blacksmith's trade, yet none more dangerous than that of the horse-shoer, who puts his life in peril every time he is called to shoe a vicious horse, yet in many cases he is among those who do not have a reasonable and just compensation for the work done.

The best way to remedy this evil and protect this class of men is to organize for mutual encouragement and council, and arrange a just list of prices, which shall protect the blacksmiths and through union of effort secure better compensation for labor.

The address was followed by remarks from the members present, and an informal discussion of the subject. At the dinner hour, the line of march was formed and the members and visiting friends proceeded to Good Cheer Hall, where the ladies of the Good Cheer Society had provided a substantial dinner, which evidently was very acceptable to the hale and hearty body of men who sat down to the tables. The divine blessing was invoked and thanks returned to the Heavenly Father, by Rev. J. H. Little.

The afternoon session opened at 1:30. Pres. Record invited Bro. Pfeiffer, National Organizer for this section of New England, to take the chair for the further consideration of forming a State organization. The subject was then taken up and the chair made further explanations of the nature and advantages of a State body, and he then solicited the opinion of those present as to the advisability of proceeding at once to organize.

Several short speeches were made favoring such a step. One member told of his experience before and after organizing the local council in his vicinity. He said, we blacksmiths were formerly strangers to each other, sometimes jealous of one another, now working for mutual good. Now we have become acquainted, we understand each other, we are helping each other, we are brothers, we feel better, we can work better and we help protect each other.

Much enthusiasm was shown in the remarks, and the applause given the speakers revealed the interest that prevailed in the subject.

This talk was followed by a vote to organize a State Association, and the following were elected as the officers for the ensuing year:

President, S. J. Record, of Norway; Vice Pres., R. W. Kent, of Bangor; Sec. Vice Pres., John M. Money, of Bangor; 3rd Vice Pres., J. J. Drury, of Augusta; Sec. and Treas., A. J. Cloutier, of Buckfield; Asst. State Organizer, L. D. Price, Presque Isle; Statisticians, E. H. LeLaud, Bangor.

Time and place of the next meeting of the State Association first Wednesday in March, 1909, at Bangor.

Next regular meeting of the local council at Buckfield.

A firm which manufactures blacksmith's supplies presented, through its traveling salesman a check, as an expression of good will, and good wishes for the success of the organization, this was to the local council, and a vote of thanks was returned accepting the gift as an expression of good will.

The meeting adjourned at 8 p. m. and everyone seemed much pleased with the session and the results of the deliberations.

It was a representative body, with men of the trade from Presque Isle, Bangor, Augusta, Lewiston and Auburn, Bridgton, Gray and many other places in the State.

It was a class of men from one of the foundation trades on which the prosperity of the nation depends.

Carl has named her "Luggins."

This valuable dog was obtained through the influence of Mr. Arthur E. Norworthy who during the past twenty-five years has been a dog fancier of ability, handling "Boston Terriers" especially. During the time he has bred and sold many valuable dogs of the blue ribbon type and experts now to introduce the English Bull Dog as a new feature.

She was a devoted mother, and a devoted friend. Her children are living: Mrs. A. Thompson of Philadelphia, and Chas. G. Blake of Philadelphia; one half sister, Mrs. James Shedd and two grand children, Miss Maude Thompson of Philadelphia and Mr. W. W. Thompson of Norway. WEST PARIS.

The Finns continue to increase in this locality, and probably number 100 or more. They have bought quite a large number of farms within a radius of three or four miles from this village and are industrious and foreboding in kind which is under oppressive taxation from Russia, wages are so meagre that most of them here consider that they are becoming rich men.

Most who come here are young people, the young men immigrating largely because of being drafted to serve as soldiers in the Russian army. When a young man gets a hundred dollars in money, a team, or a little farm home he sends over to Finland for his sweetheart and gets married. The women are courageous and independent, many when sent for coming perhaps alone, and not able to speak one word of English.

When employed in our families as domestics, they prove very capable, intelligent and willing to learn. Finland has a good system of schools and these people can read and write freely in their own language. One desirable feature of the Finns as immigrants is that they desire to become good American citizens. They imitate American customs and intend to become permanent residents and send their children to our schools. In religion they are Lutherans and occasionally have one of their preachers come and hold a religious service at the Free Baptist church.

Mark Huotair, who has for some time lived in the lower rent of Will Berry's house on Pioneer St., has purchased the Starbird farm of Will Whitman.

Quite a large number of farmers have refused to send milk to Portland on account of a cut in prices. It is hoped the matter may be adjusted.

People were saddened to hear of the death of Dorcas Cushman last Thursday afternoon. She had been ill with an external cancer for a number of months, but only those dear ones who she tenderly cared for, knew the end was so near.

Mrs. Cushman was 48 years old and had been a nurse for a good many years, winning for herself friends far and near. Funeral services were held at her sister's home at South Bethel, Monday, at 1 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Mr. Martin of Rumford Falls, in whose home she had cared for a dear one.

Will Mitchell is doing the work on the DeLan farm this spring, which was formerly occupied by Gilbert Fenn. Mr. Fenn had been a member of the DeLan family at South Hartford.

Prevalence of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease.

While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail they are almost last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.

What To Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fails every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage.

It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Ringhamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Ringhamton, N. Y.
